

To the children of Pentrebane Primary School

*So, take the stage
And rattle the cage of this old world.
Outwit the mean streets,
Face down the dream stealers,
Open the pages of your own life.
Curl up with books and souls that will hold you, Laughter can shine you through shadowlands,
Meet every crossroad armoured with questions,
Hope's steady light in the prism of your hands.*
